

1 Mr. Burns' cell phone.

2 Mr. Burns reported to the FBI that he believed he was
3 being extorted; right?

4 A Yes, sir.

5 Q And his report started the investigation by the FBI in 6 this case.

7 A The FBI upon receiving the report from Mr. Burns along
8 with Mr. Burns' statement is what we used to initiate the 9 investigation.

10 Q Okay. So once you received his report and a statement,
11 you began the investigation?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q And Mr. Burns reported that demands were being made to him
14 by text message?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q So you knew that there was potential evidence on
17 Mr. Burns' cell phone?

18 A Sir, I wasn't present during the first day that Mr. Burns
19 showed up in the office.

20 Q You met with him on March 6, 2015; right?

21 A I don't recall. Is that regarding the cell phone
22 examination or beginning of the investigation, sir?

23 Q Well, he provided you with his cell phone on 24 March 6, 2015; right?

25 A You know, I believe it was March 6, but I don't have

1 anything in front of me.

2 MS. JAIMEZ: Objection.

3 Q BY MR. CHOWDHURY: Mr. Burns only provided consent for the
4 FBI to extract text messages and text messages with photographs
5 from the cell phone; is that right?

6 A Mr. Burns provided a consent on a consent to search form
7 which he signed, and he allowed us to examine or extract text
8 messages and multimedia messages.

9 Q And you're aware one of your colleagues, Agent Parillo,
10 did the original extraction of the text messages and text
11 messages with photos from Mr. Burns' phone; right?

12 A Yes. There was -- there was an extraction that was done
13 before I obtained the phone.

14 Q Okay. And then, as you said, you yourself conducted a
15 second extraction of Mr. Burns' cell phone?

16 A Yes, sir.

17 Q And you only extracted messages between February and March 18 of 2015.

19 A That's correct.

20 Q Okay. Let's talk about the interviews of Mr. Burns.

21 You directly participated in interviews of Mr. Burns.

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q You interviewed him on June 19, 2015?

24 A I don't recall every date that I interviewed --

25 Q Or thereabouts?

1 A I've met with him several times in furtherance of
2 interviews. So I really don't know a specific -- the specific
3 dates in which I met with him.

4 Q You've met with him multiple times in June; is that right?

5 A Once again, I cannot put a number on it. I'd have to --

6 Q More than once?

7 A In the month of June, yes, sir. More than once.

8 Q More than twice?

9 A I do not know, sir.

10 Q Agent Bouman, you don't recall if you've met with 11 Mr. Burns more than twice in the month of June?

12 A It's quite possible I have, sir, but I don't recall the 13 number.

14 Q You also reviewed reports of interviews with Mr. Burns
15 that were conducted by other FBI agents; is that right?

16 A Repeat the question, sir.

17 Q You also reviewed reports of interviews with Mr. Burns
18 that were conducted by other FBI agents?

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q And you're aware that other agents interviewed him on 21 March 3rd, 2015?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q And on March 6, 2015?

24 A No, sir. I'm not aware of an interview on March 6. I
25 believe that, as I previously cited, that I may have obtained

1 his cell phone on March 6 to do the extraction, but I don't
2 believe that anyone interviewed him on March 6.

3 Q Your testimony is that there was a meeting with him on 4 March 6, 2015, to obtain his cell phone?

5 A Mr. Burns, if it was in fact March 6, came to the FBI
6 office with his representation. I obtained the cell phone from 7 Mr. Burns. I did the extraction and then provided the cell
8 phone back to Mr. Burns.

9 Q Now, each time the FBI interviewed Mr. Burns, the FBI
10 learned new information about Mr. Burns' relationship with gay
11 pornography actors; is that right?

12 A I don't know the answer to that question, sir.

13 Q Well, the FBI did not learn about Mr. Burns' relationship
14 with Mr. Amadon on March 3rd or March 6; is that right?

15 A I was not present during the interview on March 3rd, and I
16 did not conduct an interview of that nature on March 6.

17 Q But you reviewed the reports of those interviews; right?

18 A Yes, sir. Well, there was no interview on March 6.

19 Q On the March 3rd interview, there was no information that 20 Mr. Burns gave about Mr. Amadon; is that right?

21 A I don't recall the specifics of the report, and I don't 22 recall exactly what it was that he shared with the agents that 23 were present that day.

24 Q You don't recall?

25 A No, sir.

1 MR. CHOWDHURY: May I have one moment?

2 Q Agent Bouman, would it help refresh your recollection if I
3 were to show you the FBI report of that March 3rd, 2015?

4 A Yes. Would you please, sir?

5 MS. JAIMEZ: Objection. Hearsay.

6 THE COURT: We don't know what he's using it for 7 yet.

8 MR. CHOWDHURY: Your Honor, may I approach?

9 THE COURT: Sure.

10 MS. JAIMEZ: Objection, Your Honor. Mr. Bouman was 11 not even present for this particular interview.

12 THE COURT: So what's the objection?

13 MS. JAIMEZ: The objection is that it lacks
14 foundation, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: That objection is overruled.

16 Q BY MR. CHOWDHURY: Mr. Bouman, take a moment and look at 17 that and see if that refreshes your recollection.

18 THE COURT: Refreshes his recollection about what?
19 He wasn't at the interview. So your question is going to have 20 to be more specific.

21 MR. CHOWDHURY: Yes, Your Honor.

22 Q Mr. Bouman, you testified you did not recall whether the 23 FBI had learned about Mr. Amadon at the original March 3rd
24 meeting; is that right?

25 A I don't know the specifics about what was shared regarding

1 Mr. Amadon during this March 3rd interview. This is a summary
2 of the pertinent facts of the interview as performed by the
3 agents that were present that day.

4 Q And you reviewed that report previously?

5 A I have read the report, but I don't -- I can't recall
6 every detail of this report at this moment. And it's a
7 four-to-five-page report, sir.

8 Q Okay. And you've reviewed it.

9 Does it refresh your recollection as to whether the report
10 mentions anything about Mr. Amadon?

11 MS. JAIMEZ: Objection, Your Honor. The agent
12 wasn't there.

13 THE COURT: Well, that doesn't necessarily mean --
14 what's your ultimate question? What are you using this report
15 for?

16 MR. CHOWDHURY: I'm simply asking whether Mr. Bouman
17 is aware if Mr. Burns had disclosed information about 18 Mr. Amadon at the March 3rd meeting.

19 THE COURT: Well, then you're going to need the 20 agent who wrote the report in order to ask that question
21 because he doesn't know.

22 MR. CHOWDHURY: That's fine, Your Honor.

23 Q Now, Agent Bouman, you met with -- strike that.

24 It wasn't until June 30 that Mr. Burns told you about his 25 relationship with Mr. Amadon; is that right?

1 A It was a recent interview that we conducted with Mr. Burns
2 where the name of Mackinzie Amadon was disclosed, but I don't
3 know exactly when agents in this investigation may or may not
4 have known about the existence of Mr. Amadon in some way,
5 shape, or form.

6 Q So you're aware that Mr. Burns has told the FBI that he
7 began his relationship with Mr. Brank in 2013; is that right?

8 A Mr. Burns and Mr. Brank's relationship?

9 Q Yes, sir.

10 A I believe it was in April or May of 2013 that it began.

11 Q You're also aware that Mr. Burns reported communicating
12 with Mr. Brank by text message?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q And that he also communicated with Mr. Brank by e-mail?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q Now, even though you knew that Mr. Burns reported having 17 interactions with Mr. Brank dating back to 2013, you did not 18 search Mr. Burns' cell phone for text messages going back to 19 2013; right?

20 A No, sir.

21 Q And you didn't have to rely exclusively on Mr. Burns'
22 consent in conducting your search; is that right?

23 A That's incorrect, sir.

24 Q Well, you could have sought a search warrant; is that
25 right?

1 A We could have sought a search warrant and seized his
2 phone, yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: Would you get closer to the microphone
4 so we can hear you?

5 THE WITNESS: I apologize, Your Honor.

6 Q BY MR. CHOWDHURY: Can you repeat the answer, please?

7 A Can you repeat the question, please?

8 Q The question was you could have sought a search warrant?

9 A Yes. We could have.

10 Q But you chose not to seek a search warrant?

11 A I don't recall exactly what the decision process was at 12 the time, but we did not obtain a search warrant.

13 Q So even though you knew that Mr. Burns reported having 14 e-mail communication with Mr. Brank, you didn't conduct any 15 investigation of Mr. Burns' personal computer.

16 A No, sir.

17 Q And even though as the case progressed you learned
18 information that Mr. Burns did not himself volunteer, you chose 19 not to seek authorization for a more thorough search of his 20 cell phone?

21 A I would have preferred to search his cell phone in its 22 entirety, but the search was limited in scope by Mr. Burns.

23 Q And you never sought authorization to search his computer.

24 A No, sir.

25 Q So you have no knowledge about any text messages exchange

1 between Mr. Burns and Mr. Brank prior to February, 2015?

2 A No, sir.

3 Q And you have no knowledge about any phone calls between 4 Mr. Burns and Mr. Brank prior to February of 2015?

5 A Sir, I actually may know of some messages that were shared
6 between Mr. Burns and Mr. Brank from the extraction of the 7 defendant's phone but not from the extraction of Mr. Burns'
8 phone.

9 Q Because the search of Mr. -- the extraction of Mr. Burns'
10 phone was limited to February to March, 2015.

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q And you have no knowledge of any face-to-face conversation
13 between Mr. Burns and Mr. Brank prior to February, 2015?

14 A I do not understand the question, sir.

15 Q Well, you have no personal knowledge of any face to face
16 conversations between Mr. Burns and Mr. Brank prior to 17 February, 2015; is that right?

18 A Once again, sir, he described in detail his relationship
19 with Mr. Brank, and that's the limits of what I know.

20 Q The limits of what Mr. Burns told you?

21 A And again, this is April or May of 2013 you're citing?

22 Q No. Prior to February, 2015.

23 A Well, once again, sir, I received details from the victim
24 Mr. Burns.

25 Q From Mr. Burns?

1 A Yes.

2 MR. CHOWDHURY: No further questions, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. Any cross-examination?

4 MS. JAIMEZ: Yes, Your Honor.

5 CROSS-EXAMINATION

6 BY MS. JAIMEZ:

7 Q Good afternoon, Agent Bouman.

8 A Good afternoon.

9 Q Now, how do you typically corroborate crimes reported to 10 you?

11 A A number of ways. We initiate an investigation. We 12 interview people. We try to collect evidence as it exists as 13 far as we know it. And there are many more investigative steps
14 that are available to us that we can use if necessary.

15 Q And did you attempt to corroborate Mr. Burns' report of 16 extortion to you on March 3rd, 2015?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Can you outline the steps that you took to corroborate the 19 reporting of this crime?

20 A Several steps, and it began with the extraction of 21 Mr. Brank's phone and the interview of numerous people that we 22 believed were in some way, shape, or form associated with 23 either Mr. Burns or Mr. Brank or other individuals that have 24 appeared before the Court during the course of this trial.

25 Q And what was the result of these investigative steps?

1 A Mr. Brank, the defendant, was charged with extortion.

2 Q Did the investigative steps you took at the time, did they
3 confirm the extortion that had been reported to you?

4 A I believe they did.

5 Q Did you also review the defendant's phone --

6 MR. CHOWDHURY: Your Honor, I'd move to strike the 7 last answer as a legal conclusion, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Well, unfortunately I think you opened
9 the door. So I'm going to deny the motion.

10 Q BY MS. JAIMEZ: Did you also extract messages from the 11 defendant's phone?

12 A Yes. As part of the investigation, we extracted messages
13 from the defendant's phone.

14 Q Did you find anything that did not confirm what you had 15 been previously reported?

16 A No. To the contrary. It actually seemed to prove the 17 existence of the extortion.

18 MR. CHOWDHURY: Same objection, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: That objection is overruled.

20 Q BY MS. JAIMEZ: Now, let's discuss the examination of the 21 victim's phone on March 6. Can you describe how that 22 examination came to be?

23 A I was made aware by my co-case agents that Mr. Burns was 24 to show up in our office at some time during that day to 25 provide us his phone for the extraction, and prior to the time

1 I obtained the phone, there was another individual in our
2 office who obtained the phone and conducted an extraction. And
3 when I determined the manner in which the individual went about
4 it by not receiving and having them sign -- Mr. Burns sign a
5 consent form, I then had Mr. Burns sign the consent form to 6 formalize the search, and I conducted the extraction a second
7 time.

8 Q Was there a limit of some sort to the extraction of 9 Mr. Burns' phone?

10 A Yes, ma'am.

11 Q What was the limit? Do you recall?

12 A I believe he limited the extraction to dates of 13 February 16 through March 5th, and it was limited to text
14 messages and MMS messages only.

15 Q And why was the extraction limited?

16 A Mr. Burns preferred it that way.

17 Q Did he give any reasons?

18 A He was concerned about the personal and business
19 information that was obtained in his phone outside of the 20 limits of the dates of the extortion.

21 Q Now, you mentioned corroborating the evidence of the 22 reported crime here. Did you issue any subpoenas to 23 corroborate the reported crime?

24 A Yes. Several.

25 Q Did you seek court orders for phone records?

1 A Yes, ma'am.

2 Q Did you obtain a search warrant for any social media
3 sites?

4 A Yes, ma'am.

5 Q Did you obtain search warrants for other telephones
6 related to the investigation?

7 A Yes, ma'am.

8 Q Did you conduct any other extractions of other telephones
9 in this case?

10 A Yes. Yes, ma'am. We did. Mr. Griggs' phone.

11 Q Mr. Griggs' phone. What was the result of that 12 extraction?

13 A Well, it was from that phone which we found the screenshot
14 which had the tweet which, for all intents and purposes, began
15 the extortion.

16 Q So the subpoena phone records, search warrants, and other
17 extractions, what was the conclusion of all of these 18 investigative steps?

19 A That the defendant extorted Mr. Burns.

20 MR. CHOWDHURY: Objection, Your Honor. Calls for a
21 legal conclusion.

22 THE COURT: That objection will be sustained. I'll 23 entertain it as a motion to strike. The motion is granted.
24 The jury is to disregard the last answer.

25 Q BY MS. JAIMEZ: Now, when did the FBI find out about --

1 let me strike that.

2 How did the FBI learn about the details concerning
3 Mr. Burns' relationship with Mr. Amadon?

4 A It was during an interview -- no. Correction. We learned
5 about it because we received a subpoena that -- information
6 about a subpoena from an attorney that was representing
7 Mr. Amadon, and the attorney directly contacted us after 8 Mr. Amadon, his client, received the subpoena, and the subpoena
9 was delivered to them by the defense.

10 Q But prior to that, had the defendant mentioned supporting
11 anyone financially in -- I'm sorry. Had the victim,
12 Donald Burns, mentioned supporting someone --

13 MR. CHOWDHURY: Your Honor, I object to the 14 characterization of Mr. Burns as the victim.

15 THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

16 THE WITNESS: Yes. Yes. Mr. Burns --

17 THE COURT: The objection was sustained. You can't 18 answer the question. Let's have another question.

19 Q BY MS. JAIMEZ: So prior to having information about the 20 subpoena you mentioned, had Mr. Burns mentioned financially
21 supporting anybody?

22 A Yes. We were aware that he was financially supporting an 23 individual, but Mr. Burns had indicated clearly that he didn't
24 want to involve that individual in the investigation.

25 Q And why didn't he want to involve that individual?

1 A Out of personal concerns for the individual's privacy.

2 Q Did Mr. Burns provide the details concerning the
3 relationship early on in the investigation?

4 A I'm not aware of the extent at this time. Again, I would
5 have to review the report.

6 MS. JAIMEZ: One moment, Your Honor.

7 Q Agent Bouman, are you aware -- you've reviewed several of 8 the reports; correct?

9 A Yes, ma'am.

10 Q Do you remember seeing references to an unidentified male?

11 THE COURT: You're going to open up a line of 12 questioning that I precluded based upon the defense's offer of 13 this report?

14 MS. JAIMEZ: Not that report, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: No. You're going to go to another
16 report -- did he write the report?

17 MS. JAIMEZ: This particular report that I'm 18 referring to I'd have to --

19 THE COURT: Well, if he didn't write the report,
20 then you're asking me to allow questioning that I prevented the 21 defense from asking.

22 MR. JAUREGUI: Your Honor, may we confer for ten
23 seconds?

24 THE COURT: Sure.

25 (Counsel confer.)

1 Q BY MS. JAIMEZ: Okay. Just a few more questions,
2 Agent Bouman.

3 Did Mr. Burns, the witness in this case, did he ever
4 refuse to answer any questions that you have offered him
5 concerning specifically Mr. Amadon?

6 THE COURT: You're going to have to restate the 7 question. It doesn't make any sense. Questions that you
8 offered him, what does that mean?

9 Q BY MS. JAIMEZ: Agent Bouman, has Mr. Burns, during the 10 time that you've interviewed him, did he ever refuse to answer
11 any of your questions?

12 A He was cooperative throughout the investigation.

13 THE COURT: No. The question was simply yes or no.
14 Do you have the question in mind?

15 THE WITNESS: I don't know.

16 Q BY MS. JAIMEZ: Did he provide information about 17 Mr. Amadon when asked directly? Did Mr. Burns provide 18 information about Mr. Amadon when asked directly?

19 A Yes, he did.

20 MS. JAIMEZ: Thank you. No further questions.

21 THE COURT: Any additional questions?

22 MR. CHOWDHURY: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

23 THE COURT: May this witness step down?

24 MS. JAIMEZ: Yes, Your Honor.

25 MR. CHOWDHURY: Yes.

1 THE COURT: You may step down.

2 Call your next witness.

3 MS. AHMAD: The defense rests, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Any rebuttal case?

5 MR. JAUREGUI: No, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen, that
7 concludes the evidence in this case. We're normally going
8 until 2:00 o'clock, but we're going to have to discuss jury
9 instructions, and I need to give counsel some time to prepare
10 their closing arguments. We're ahead of schedule in the case.
11 So we're going to recess early today.

12 Tomorrow we'll commence at 8:00 o'clock. You will hear
13 the closing arguments of counsel, and I will give you the 14 Court's instructions, and then you will have the case to begin
15 your deliberations.

16 As I indicated to you on Tuesday, your hours are going to 17 change. You're going to be expected to be here until at least 18 4:00 o'clock tomorrow while you deliberate, and we'll have 19 lunch brought in.

20 I expect that you would have the case somewhere around
21 10:00 o'clock to begin your deliberations. So I appreciate
22 everybody's efforts in being here on time this morning. It
23 allowed us to almost start on time.

24 In any event, I want to remind you of the instruction that
25 I've given you, and that is you're not to discuss this case

1 with anyone including your fellow jurors, members of your
2 family, or anyone else, nor are you permitted to instruct
3 others to discuss this case with you.

4 And again, I can't emphasize more strongly that I have
5 issued and will continue to remind you of the order that I made
6 yesterday, and that is that you are not permitted to look --
7 you're not permitted to search on Google or any other source of 8 information -- and there are so many for me to list them all.
9 I probably don't know what they all are. But any forms of 10 investigation. You can only consider the evidence that's been 11 presented in this case.

12 I know that everybody has access. You can search
13 something on Google with your iPhone, but you cannot do that 14 because it's unfair to the parties because the parties don't 15 know what you're looking at and, as I indicated yesterday, if
16 you do violate my order, that means that I have to declare a
17 mistrial. So it's very, very important that you don't obtain
18 any information whatsoever outside the evidence that's 19 presented during the course of this trial.

20 So with that, have a safe journey home, and we will see
21 you tomorrow at 8:00 a.m.

22 (The following proceedings were held in 23 open court out of the presence of the jury:)

24 THE COURT: All right. The jury is not present.
25 We're going to take a 45-minute recess, and we'll come back

1 here at 1:45. I still have continuing concerns about the jury
2 instructions. So I want to finalize, as I'm sure you do, the
3 jury instructions so you will know what the jury instructions
4 will be so you can prepare your closing arguments.

5 All right. So we'll see you at 1:45.

6 (A recess was taken at 12:55 p.m.)

7 THE COURT: All right. We're on the record. All
8 counsel and the defendant are present. We'll go over the jury
9 instructions.

10 I provided you -- each counsel with a copy of the Court's
11 Instruction no. 12 and Court's Instruction no. 13 which we'll 12 discuss at an appropriate time, sooner than later. But I just 13 wanted to give you a heads up because it's hard to visual these 14 instructions.

15 I think the easiest way do this is for me to indicate what 16 my rulings are with respect to the jury instructions that are 17 set forth in document no. 182. I just think that's the easiest
18 way to do it, and I'll let you go ahead and make whatever
19 record you want to make.

20 With respect to Count 1 of the Indictment, Count 1 charges
21 the 18 United States Code Section 875(d), and that's the 22 instruction that I have drafted which I've given to you as
23 Court's Instruction no. 12, and that's based upon the document
24 that I received this morning from the Government which included
25 a definition of "true threat" and also a proposed jury

1 instruction with respect to "wrongfulness."

2       What I have done is the following. The Court's
3 instruction for Count no. 1, which is the -- as I said, the 4 violation of 875(d), incorporates a wrongful element in
5 accordance with two cases admittedly out of Circuit. But it's
6 United States versus Coss, C-o-s-s, at 677 F.3d 278 which is a
7 6th Circuit 2012 case; United States versus Jackson which is a
8 case at -- out of the 2nd Circuit. It's 180 F.3d page 55. And 9 then a District Court of Arizona case which is United States
10 versus Klos, K-l-o-s, at 212 Westlaw 412, 043, all of which
11 have determined that 875(d), like 18 United States Code Section
12 1951, has a wrongfulness element.

13       In the joint memorandum of law, the Government cites to 14 Coss as authority for its proposed Instruction no. 12 on 875(d)
15 yet doesn't acknowledge that Coss had a wrongful element in 16 875(d).

17       So the Government now, at least it appears to concede,
18 that it must prove wrongfulness and that the defendant is 19 entitled to a claim of right instruction in the context of 1951
20 instruction as demonstrated by its new proposed jury
21 instruction on wrongfulness that was submitted this morning,
22 but that instruction was silent with respect to the 23 wrongfulness element of Count 1. So I have drafted Court's
24 Instruction no. 12 accordingly.

25       I also agree with the defendant, and based upon the

1 Government's submission this morning, conclude that it must
2 agree that the true threat has both an objective and subjective
3 standard. And although the 9th Circuit has never specifically
4 held that a threat under 875(d) requires an objective analysis
5 in addition to the subjective analysis, other Circuits have 6 required that element.

7 And as I didn't have with me this morning, what I was 8 referring to is the model 11th Circuit instruction that the 9 Government cites in support of its proposed instruction which
10 is the 11th Circuit Pattern Instructions -- it was 18-30.4 --
11 defines true threat using an objective test.

12 I adopt the Government's definition of true threat as it
13 comports with the 9th Circuit definition in United States
14 versus -- and the last name is B-a-g-d-a-s-a-r-i-a-n,
15 652 F.3d 1113 which addressed the definition of true threat for 16 the purposes of section 879(a)(3).

17 I've also, as you'll see in Court's Instruction no. 12, I
18 changed the Government's definition of "intent to distort."
19 You can see how I have changed that. I think that definition
20 that I've included more accurately tracks the statute than the 21 Government's definition and also incorporates the wrongfulness
22 element. Because it incorporates the wrongfulness element, the 23 Court believes it is duplicative and unnecessary to use
24 defendant's instruction that reads "Defendant sent the 25 communication with the intent to obtain property that the

1 defendant knew that he was not entitled to receive."

2 So that's the instruction that I propose to give with
3 respect to Count 1.

4 The freestanding definition that I intend to include for
5 the definition of wrongful, which will apply to Counts 1, 2,
6 and 5, is set forth in what I've given you which is the Court's
7 Instruction no. 13.

8 Does anybody have any objection to either of these
9 instructions?

10 MR. JAUREGUI: Your Honor, just for the record, I
11 would like to note that the Government doesn't concede that the 12 defendant is entitled to a claim of right instruction in this 13 case. We -- docket no. 183, which is the memorandum on the 14 joint jury instructions, sets out the Government's position at 15 page 6 through 9.

16 THE COURT: Well, then how can you submit the 17 definition of wrongfulness which indicates that a threat to 18 publicly disclose a person's sexual secrets or indiscretions is 19 wrongful where the claim for money or property to which the 20 defendant had no right and could not reasonably believe he had 21 a right or which he had no nexus, that is, no connection to a
22 legitimate claim for money? That's the claim of right.

23 MR. JAUREGUI: I see. So the instruction that the 24 Government submitted includes both the claim of right defense
25 and a definition of wrongful. That's the issue. When we

1 submitted that instruction, Your Honor --

2 THE COURT: Which instruction?

3 MR. JAUREGUI: The proposed instruction on 4 wrongfulness.

5 THE COURT: When? This morning?

6 MR. JAUREGUI: Yes. It was -- I believe I said on 7 the record this morning that we were submitting that
8 instruction in the event that the Court decided that the 9 defendant was entitled to a claim of right defense.

10 THE COURT: Right. I'm concluding that he is.

11 MR. JAUREGUI: Okay.

12 THE COURT: So you don't have any problems with my
13 definition of wrongfulness in Court's Instruction no. 13?

14 MR. JAUREGUI: I do not.

15 THE COURT: Okay. What about Court's Instruction
16 no. 12?

17 MR. CHOWDHURY: Your Honor -- I'll let the 18 Government proceed.

19 MR. JAUREGUI: No objection to the instruction --
20 Court's Instruction no. 12, Your Honor.

21 MR. CHOWDHURY: Your Honor, we have no objection to 22 Instruction no. 12. The only point I would raise -- and maybe
23 the Court is going to get to it as to the question this raises,
24 at least in our minds, is we define true threat in 25 Instruction no. 12, and I'm not sure what the language will be

1 that we use in Counts 2 and 5. But just looking at
2 Government's proposed Count 2, the first one talks about a
3 wrongful threat.

4 So we have two terms out there. I know the Court had
5 highlighted this concern. There's a true threat that's going
6 to be defined, and then there's this wrongful threat that's
7 also going to have a tie back to the wrongfulness freestanding
8 definition 13, Court's definition. Now, I do think, upon
9 looking at the Court's ruling, I recognize that we did not, in 10 the memorandum or in the proposed orders, suggest the true
11 threat definition on Counts 2 and 5. But I do believe, looking 12 at the Court's ruling, that the true threat definition should
13 apply on Counts 2 and 5 because it is precisely the same type
14 of threat. It's a threat to reputational harm just as it
15 stated in Count 1.

16 THE COURT: Now you're going to 2 and 5?

17 MR. CHOWDHURY: Well, yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Why don't we save that because I'm
19 trying to do them in piecemeal here.

20 MR. CHOWDHURY: That's fine, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: So do you have an objection to 12 or 13?

22 MR. CHOWDHURY: Your Honor, no objection as to 12.
23 If I can have one moment on 13.

24 Your Honor, we would simply propose that our instruction
25 we believe more closely tracks the claim of right defense as

1 it's been set out in the cases in the 9th Circuit. I
2 understand that there is some language about this nexus to a
3 legitimate claim for money or property, but we do think that
4 the claim of right defense, especially as set out in 8.142A, is
5 a simpler argument that the threat is wrongful only if the 6 defendant knew he was not entitled to obtain property. We 7 would suggest putting the period there and not have the 8 remaining clause following. That's in line with what we 9 proposed in disputed Instruction no. 13, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. Well, unfortunately I
11 brought out with me the old Model Instruction, the 8.142A.

12 MR. CHOWDHURY: I have a copy if the Court would 13 like.

14 THE COURT: No. I have it. This is the June one.
15 So you're proposing we use the language that a threat is 16 wrongful if the defendant knew he was not entitled to the 17 property?

18 MR. CHOWDHURY: Yes, Your Honor. And so I think
19 that makes -- that is a way to perhaps avoid some confusion.
20 We're just adopting the Model 9th Circuit definition. It's a
21 simple sentence. That would apply to Counts 1, 2, and 5.

22 THE COURT: What's the Government's position on 23 that?

24 MR. JAUREGUI: We do not agree with that,
25 Your Honor. We think Instruction no. 13 as set out -- Court's

1 Instruction no. 13 is wholly appropriate, especially in light
2 of United States versus Jackson which the Court is very
3 familiar with.

4 Also, the Model Jury Instruction is not what defense
5 counsel purports it to be. It says a threat is wrongful if it
6 is unlawful or if the defendant knew he was not entitled to
7 obtain the property. So cutting it at obtain the property
8 doesn't track the 9th Circuit.

9 THE COURT: But that doesn't make any sense. That's
10 why I've taken that sentence out of your wrongfulness
11 instruction. A threat is also wrongful if it's unlawful. I
12 don't know what that means.

13 MR. JAUREGUI: Right.

14 THE COURT: But I'll consider that tonight, and I'll 15 give you my ruling in the morning.

16 MR. JAUREGUI: Okay. Just to be clear, the 17 Government is in accord with Court's Instruction no. 13.

18 THE COURT: Okay. So whatever I decide on Court's
19 Instruction 13, it's going to apply -- that definition is going 20 to apply to Counts 1, 2, and 5. 2 and 5 are the ones we 21 haven't discussed yet. So let me move there.

22 The first -- the next issue that I have though -- all
23 right. This is Count 2. This is the 1951(a) count. Here's my 24 ruling on this disputed Jury Instruction no. 14.

25 Except for one modification, I'm going to give the

1 Government's proposed no. 14 because it parallels the
2 9th Circuit's Model Instruction that I just referred to 8.142A
3 relating to Hobbs Act extortion except that it does not include
4 the definition of wrongful within the instruction because it's
5 going to be a freestanding instruction on wrongfulness.

6 In addition, I'm going to modify the first element of the 7 Government's proposed instruction. So it's going to read,
8 first, the defendant induced Donald Burns to part with property
9 by the wrongful use of fear, specifically by wrongful threat of 10 reputational harm. And the reason I'm doing that is that's 11 what more closely tracks the way that Count 2 in the first 12 superseding Indictment reads because it indicates -- in the 13 first superseding Indictment, it's induced by the wrongful use
14 of fear. So I think that more properly characterizes element
15 no. 1. So that's how I'm going to change that.

16 Any objections?

17 MR. CHOWDHURY: No objection, Your Honor.

18 MR. JAUREGUI: None from the Government, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. The next issue that I
20 have -- and I think that this needs some focus because we have 21 the Government's proposed Instruction no. 15, and Instruction
22 no. 15 purports to define affecting interstate commerce, but we 23 have two different forms of an expression in the statute as
24 well as the Indictment in terms of the interstate commerce
25 requirement.

1 Count 1 charges that the -- with the intent to extort
2 money and things of value from the victim, knowingly
3 transmitted in interstate or foreign commerce telephone
4 communications and electronic text. So that is one description
5 of the interstate commerce.

6 And then in Count 2 and in Count 5, the 1951, there is a
7 different description, and that is that knowingly with the 8 intent to obtain property obstructed, delayed, and affected
9 commerce and the movement of articles and commodities in 10 commerce.

11 So it seems to me that the Government's proposed
12 Instruction no. 15 re affecting interstate commerce, that
13 definition or that instruction is only applicable to Counts 2
14 and 5, and it's not Count 1 which it appears that that's a
15 different requirement, and that's a requirement that it's a
16 transmission in interstate or foreign commerce.

17 So what I propose to do is to define interstate commerce
18 in a standalone instruction, and it's defined at 19 18 United States Code Section 10, and that provides that 20 interstate commerce includes commerce between one state
21 territory possession or the District of Columbia or another
22 state territory possession or the District of Columbia -- we 23 don't need that. But the definition would be -- would apply to 24 all counts that include interstate commerce as an element.

25 The Court proposes to add the Government's proposed

1 instruction on interstate commerce to affecting interstate
2 commerce as a separate paragraph in the two Hobbs Act
3 instructions which cover the elements.

4 So let me have your thoughts on this interstate commerce
5 because this is -- I think this is a lot to do about nothing,
6 but it concerns me with respect to the differences in the 7 language.

8 MR. CHOWDHURY: Your Honor, to be frank, this wasn't
9 an issue that we had focused on yet. I suggest that we could 10 take a look at the first superseding Indictment one more time
11 and then just give our thoughts to the Court in the morning.

12 THE COURT: It's not going to be in the morning
13 because I'm going to draft these instructions or finalize these 14 instructions tonight. So you can meet and confer. But it
15 seems to me, if we just have one definition of interstate 16 commerce, then we're better off. So I'll let you guys work on 17 that, and then get me something by close of business today.

18 MR. CHOWDHURY: Yes, Your Honor.

19 MR. JAUREGUI: Your Honor, may I note one thing
20 about the Hobbs Act?

21 THE COURT: Yeah.

22 MR. JAUREGUI: The statute and the Indictment both
23 say commerce only and not interstate commerce.

24 THE COURT: Right. So what's -- so you don't think
25 there's an interstate commerce element?

1 MR. JAUREGUI: Like Mr. Chowdhury, I'll be frank and 2 say --

3 THE COURT: Because then I don't understand what
4 your proposed Instruction no. 15 was supposed to be designed to 5 accomplish because I -- I mean, I read --

6 MR. CHOWDHURY: Your Honor, I've conferred with my 7 counsel here. The Court's proposal is to the one definition to 8 interstate commerce. That is fine with defense.

9 THE COURT: You're going to have to speak up. You
10 folks have to learn to -- you know, my hearing is not the best,
11 but even if I have excellent hearing, you have to get next to 12 these microphones because the acoustics from up here -- I can't 13 hear you.

14 MR. CHOWDHURY: My apologies, Your Honor.

15 I have just spoken with co-counsel. We have no problem
16 with the Court's proposal in terms of the interstate commerce
17 definition that the Court described just now.

18 THE COURT: What about the Government?

19 MR. JAUREGUI: Your Honor, I think, if we can just 20 take a look at it, we can get something to the Court by the 21 close of business. You know, I don't want to rush an answer.
22 1951 does have a definition of commerce, and it's 1951(b)(3).

23 THE COURT: Yeah. That pretty much tracks Title 18
24 United States Code Section 10 which I just read, but it does
25 have a -- I mean, if you read (b)(3), it's pretty clear what

1 they're talking about is interstate commerce. Otherwise,
2 they -- admittedly they don't use the word "interstate
3 commerce," but I think it's pretty clear. And also, the nexus
4 for federal court jurisdiction is going to be the interstate
5 commerce.

6 You can submit something. I'll give you an opportunity to 7 do so. It's bothered me because the way that you've -- you've 8 properly tracked the statute, but the statutes are different.
9 And I don't want the jury to become confused on this kind of an
10 issue. Enough said for that.

11 MR. JAUREGUI: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Then the next instruction is the 13 disputed Instruction no. 16, and this relates to Counts 3 and 14 4, and my ruling on this is going to be as follows:

15 The Government and defendant essentially agree on the 16 elements of Counts 3 and 4 but disagree as to the manner in 17 which the instruction is worded. The Court concludes that the 18 Government's instruction is a more accurate reflection of the 19 statutory elements and that the proposed element -- defendant's
20 proposed element no. 3 that the defendant knew he was receiving 21 money or property allegedly at the time it was transferred to 22 him does not correctly state the law.

23 Section 880's requirement that the defendant know that the 24 property was unlawfully obtained applies not only to receipt of 25 the money or property but also to possession, concealment, and

1 disposal.

2 In addition, the Court believes that the defendant's claim
3 of right paragraph is unnecessary because it's certainly one of 4 the elements that the Government must prove is that the 5 defendant knew the money or other property had been unlawfully
6 obtained. This, in my view, eliminates any claim of right.

7 Accordingly, I'm going to give the Government's 8 proposed 16. However, I believe that element no. 3 in the 9 Government's proposed instruction should be eliminated, and 10 that is that the offense is punishable by imprisonment for more
11 than one year.

12 What does that have to do with it?

13 MR. JAUREGUI: It's one of the elements.

14 THE COURT: That's a question of law that I don't 15 think has to go to the jury.

16 MR. JAUREGUI: Right. We're okay with that.

17 THE COURT: All right. Then the next would be 18 Count 5. This is the attempted extortion, and here's my -- I'm 19 going to conform the first element of Count 5 to Count 2 and
20 include that it's by -- the first element is defendant intended
21 to induce Burns to part with property by the wrongful use of 22 fear, specifically by wrongful threat of reputational harm to 23 be consistent with the language of the Indictment.

24 I think the Government left out -- because this Count 5 is 25 the attempted extortion. You left out the language that, with

1 respect to the mere preparation is not a substantial step
2 toward committing the crime that constituted a substantial
3 step -- that paragraph that goes along with the attempt. There
4 is no attempt language in your Instruction no. 17.

5 MR. JAUREGUI: I'm looking at Instruction 8.142A,
6 Your Honor. You are correct, and we have no objection to 7 adding that language in.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So I'm going to give the 9 Government's instruction except it will also include the mere
10 preparation paragraph that we just discussed.

11 Then Count 6, the ruling is going to be as follows: This 12 is disputed Instruction no. 18 which relates to the elements of 13 Count 6. The parties agree on the elements of this crime but 14 merely disagree over the wording. The Court will give the 15 Government's proposed 18 as it tracks the 9th Circuit's Model
16 8.144 as modified for attempt, and I conclude that it's a
17 clearer statement of the law than the defendant's proposed
18 instruction.

19 The Court believes that the defendant's clarification that 20 1952(a)(3) requires that the defendant intended to conduct an 21 unlawful activity at the time that the facility or interstate
22 commerce is used is unnecessary, and it's encompassed within 23 the Government's proposed instruction. So that will be the 24 ruling on that.

25 And then we don't have any issues any longer with Count 7.

1 MR. CHOWDHURY: Your Honor, on Count 6, just a
2 question about the first element. I know this wasn't something
3 that was raised by either party earlier. I do think that we're 4 going to end up with questions about the laws of the state of
5 California since we don't have anything about that here. So
6 our proposal, just to avoid any confusion, would be to track
7 the extortion offenses to Counts 1, 2, and 5.

8 THE COURT: So you're proposed to take the extortion
9 offenses in violation of the laws of the United States?

10 MR. CHOWDHURY: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Does the Government agree?

12 MR. JAUREGUI: May I confer with co-counsel here?

13 THE COURT: Sure.

14 (Counsel confer.)

15 MS. JAIMEZ: Your Honor, the Government would prefer
16 to leave the instruction as is because it follows the law,
17 Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: It does what?

19 MS. JAIMEZ: We would prefer -- it follows the 20 statute specifically to the extent the use of a facility of 21 interstate commerce facilitates any type of unlawful activity,
22 whether the state unlawful activity or federal, and by tying
23 it simply to these counts, Your Honor, we're narrowing the 24 offense from the conduct that the statute encompasses. The 25 Government would be prepared to provide an instruction with

1 respect to state law if that would be helpful.

2 THE COURT: Well, I don't know if it's going to be
3 helpful, but I agree with counsel that the jury is going to 4 come out and say, okay, what's the law of the state of 5 California that's involved in this instruction, and then what
6 are we going to tell them?

7 MS. JAIMEZ: Notably the law is very similar to what
8 the law was in the Jackson case where it notes that the 9 New York law included the definition of extortion to include
10 fear caused by a threat to expose a secret. California law
11 also has very similar language in Penal Code 519. And so we'd
12 want to be able to include that language here because to a
13 certain extent it's broader and more specific to this case, and 14 we would want to carve that language out when clearly it
15 applies under the language of the statute. The statute allows
16 for the use of -- criminalizes the use of an interstate
17 facility in connection with an unlawful activity defined under 18 California law as well as under federal law.

19 THE COURT: Why didn't you do that in your proposed
20 instruction that you submitted on June 15?

21 MS. JAIMEZ: It was an oversight, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Well, you can go ahead and submit
23 something, but I can tell you right now that I doubt I'm going
24 to include it. But go ahead and submit something.

25 MS. JAIMEZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. So those are the Court's
2 rulings with respect to the jury instructions. I'll take
3 responsibility for preparing the instructions in final form.
4 So I'll have a copy for counsel in the morning.

5 How long are you going to need for closing arguments?

6 MR. CHOWDHURY: Your Honor, I believe ours will be 7 15 to 20 minutes.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And the Government?

9 MS. JAIMEZ: 30 to 45 minutes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Is that opening and close?

11 MS. JAIMEZ: The rebuttal will determine on --

12 THE COURT: I can't hear you.

13 MS. JAIMEZ: The rebuttal will depend largely on 14 what is said by the defense.

15 THE COURT: I'm asking for a time estimate.

16 MS. JAIMEZ: 45 minutes --

17 THE COURT: And then you can use those 45 minutes
18 however you choose to use them. I don't care if you do a
19 5-minute opening and a 40-minute rebuttal. I just want to know
20 how much time you reasonably estimate you're going to need for 21 your entire argument.

22 MS. JAIMEZ: 45 minutes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay. The Court has a couple of rules
24 with respect to closing arguments. To the extent counsel are 25 going to use any PowerPoint presentations, you're to disclose

1 those PowerPoint presentations to opposing counsel. And if
2 there are any objections, you can file something or -- you can
3 file something today.

4 I don't allow counsel to display the jury instructions on
5 the elmo to the jury. You can refer to the instructions. You
6 can read from -- I don't want you to sit there and read the 7 instructions. You can use bullet points and some form of the 8 instructions or pick out more important instructions, but we're 9 not going to just sit -- we're not going to just put an 10 instruction on the elmo for the jury.

11 I also -- the other question that I have is I typically 12 don't like to send the Indictment into the jury room, but given
13 the way that we have so many different charges in this case, I
14 think it's going to be necessary for the jury to have a copy of 15 the first superseding Indictment.

16 What I'm going to do is I'm going to redact the first
17 superseding Indictment and only -- and the redacted version
18 will only have Counts 1 through 6 because Count 7 has been
19 dismissed, and the forfeiture we will deal with by a Court
20 trial.

21 MR. JAUREGUI: I'm sure the Court is going to do
22 this already, Your Honor, but the cover page also lists the gun
23 count. So it would need to be redacted from that caption as 24 well.

25 THE COURT: Since you have this on -- in a document

1 that can be easily edited, why don't you -- why doesn't the
2 Government prepare the redacted Indictment because, if I do it,
3 it's going to look like -- it's going to be done with white
4 out. So why don't you prepare a redacted first superseding
5 Indictment that eliminates the Count 7 language and the 6 forfeiture language.

7 And I never include the signature page because I've had
8 jurors come out and ask if the Indictment is invalid because
9 there's no signature of the foreperson. So when you're doing
10 it, you can just end it at page 7.

11 MR. WHITE: What I've done -- Ryan White for the 12 record speaking for the first time in the case.

13 What I've done in past trials is prepared -- rather than 14 redacting, prepared a trial Indictment for the jury.

15 THE COURT: That's fine. So you just basically
16 copy?

17 MR. WHITE: I take out Count 7, take out the 18 forfeiture count, remove the signature page, call it trial
19 Indictment, remove the inappropriate references to the count,
20 and it will be a clean document that way.

21 THE COURT: That's fine. Is that agreeable with the 22 defense?

23 MR. CHOWDHURY: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Unless there's anything else, why
25 don't we plan to get together at 7:45 tomorrow, and any

1 additional rulings that I need to make on these jury
2 instructions I'll make at that time.

3 MR. CHOWDHURY: Your Honor, just one question about
4 the PowerPoint disclosure. By when would the Court want any 5 disclosure to happen?

6 THE COURT: Well, today. Is somebody going to use a
7 PowerPoint?

8 MS. JAIMEZ: The Government is, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Do you have it done?

10 MS. JAIMEZ: Not completely. It has to be revised
11 based on these proceedings.

12 THE COURT: When is it going to be ready?

13 MS. JAIMEZ: By close of business. Around 6:00 p.m.
14 or so.

15 THE COURT: So that's the answer.

16 MR. CHOWDHURY: That's fine, Your Honor. We have
17 considered using a PowerPoint. We haven't decided. If we do
18 use one, we will disclose it.

19 MR. JAUREGUI: Your Honor, two really quick things,
20 Your Honor. I'm a little unclear as to what exactly Mr. Lemon
21 said about immunity, and I just want to make sure for the 22 record that we're clear that the Government has provided no
23 immunity whatsoever to Mr. Yim. We obviously have a plea
24 agreement with him, but after conferring with Mr. White, we had 25 a little bit of confusion about maybe Mr. Lemon saying

1 something about immunity. And we just wanted to make sure it
2 was clear there's no immunity at all, not for drugs or anything
3 else. It's just the plea agreement we have with him.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. JAUREGUI: And question, Your Honor, about
6 whether the Court will preinstruct before closing.

7 THE COURT: No.

8 MR. JAUREGUI: That's it. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: Thank you very much.
